The Internet World is a wonderful place to learn Japanese.

In this Sensei no Wa session, Ms. Coloma will convey ideas on how to engage students in internet tasks and share some useful sites that a teacher can use in preparing for his/her lesson. Come and join the workshop, share and learn from one another on how to engage our tech-savvy students in learning Japanese.

Ms. Mae Coloma

Mae Coloma was fortunate enough to be a recipient of the Short Term Teacher's Training Program at the Japan Foundation Language Institute in Urawa in the summer of 2016. Though it was her second time in Urawa, there was never a lack of insights and revelations into teaching Japanese as a Second Language.
