

NIHONGO SPEECH CONTEST 2018

The Japan Foundation, Manila

The Nihongo Speech Contest primarily aims to extend to students and professionals an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to express themselves in Japanese; thus, promoting cultural exchange - deeper understanding and better appreciation of the culture of Japan and the Philippines.

Since 2008, there have been 3 categories; namely, the Student Division, the Non-student Division, and the Open Division. Therefore, anybody - whether he/she is a new learner, student or non-student, can join in the corresponding/appropriate category; and, speakers with a high level of proficiency in Nihongo can compete in the Open Division.

Schedule of screening and competitions in Mindanao, Visayas and Luzon:

1. Initial screening of manuscripts: Deadline is January 10, 2018 (Wednesday) for Mindanao and January 17, 2018 (Wednesday) for NCR/Luzon applicants.
2. Preliminary competition: January 19, 2018 (Friday) at the Apo View Hotel (Silver Room) in Davao (for Mindanao applicants); February 3, 2018 (Saturday) at The Japan Foundation, Manila (for NCR / Luzon applicants)
