

Seminar on

“Japanese Language Education and Community Involvement”

In this talk I will emphasize the importance of community involvement in Japanese language education and show many examples of how to realize this vision by incorporating project-based activities. I will also demonstrate examples of what we can do in everyday teaching practice to incorporate the vision.

Dr. SHINJI SATO (佐藤 慎司)

Senior Lecturer in East Asian Studies
Director, Japanese Language Program
Princeton University.

Degrees:

- Ph.D. in Anthropology and Education
Columbia University
- M.A. in East Asian Studies
University of Massachusetts, Amherst
- B.A. in Economics, Tohoku University
(Japan)

<https://eas.princeton.edu/people/shinji-sato>

●Lecture will be conducted in English.●

CEBU

Date: November 23, 2019 | Saturday

Time: 9:00AM - 3:00PM

Venue: Applied Nutrition Center
Banilad, Cebu City

(*Lunch will not be provided.)

Online Registration:

<https://bit.ly/DrSato-seminar2019>

JAPAN FOUNDATION

Contact,
The Japan Foundation, Manila
23F Pacific Star Bldg. Sen. Gil Puyat
Ave., cor. Makati Ave. Makati City
Tel.no.: 02-8811-6155 to 58
Email: nihongo1@jfmo.org.ph /
cejaquino@jfmo.org.ph

MANILA

Date: November 24, 2019 | Sunday

Time: 9:00AM—12:00NN

Venue: Dusit Thani, Ayala Center
Makati City (Chantara-Mezzanine)

Deadline of Registration:

CEBU & MANILA:

Nov. 22 | Friday | 12:00NN

*Registration may be closed upon reaching the maximum allowable number of participants.

For more details, visit

JFM webpage, <https://jfmo.org.ph/>

and FB page, www.facebook.com/jfmanila/