ANNOUNCEMENT

2022 JAPANESE LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY TEST ON DECEMBER 4 (SUNDAY) Online Application

The Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) will be held on Sunday – December 4, 2022 in Manila, Cebu, Davao and Cagayan De Oro. The JLPT is administered worldwide by the Japan Foundation in cooperation with other cultural exchange/educational institutions, in order to evaluate and certify the Japanese Language proficiency of non-native speakers.

Due to the health protocols and other restrictions, the tests will be held with the restricted number of applicants in some areas.

▼ General Guide on JLPT 2022 <https://bit.ly/JLPTguide2022>

Test Level

- Manila: N1 to N5 (maximum of 6,400 applicants – total number for all the levels)
- Cebu: N1 to N5
- Davao: N1 to N5 (maximum of 1,500 applicants – total number for all the levels)
- Cagayan De Oro: N3, N4 and N5

Application Procedure

-Applicants must register in the following online application form.

<https://jlpt-apply.jfmo.org.ph/>

-Application Period: from September 1 to 20, 2022.

Applications

Applicants or the representative of a group need to pay the corresponding registration fee and then upload a copy of the payment slip (or Official Receipt issued by the host institution) on this Online Application Form to complete the application. The payment method is instructed in the online application form.

Cautions

- In Manila and Davao, once the application number reaches the maximum, no more applications will be accepted. Those who cannot complete the application, but already paid the test fee will be refunded.
- Only those who are fully vaccinated are eligible to take the test. These requirements are subject to the health protocols mandated by the venues.
- Group applications shall be made for the same level. If your group has applications for multiple levels, you have to apply for group applications for each level.
